This evening our Lenten observance comes to an end, and we gather with Christians around the world to celebrate the Three Days of Jesus' death and resurrection. Tonight we remember Christ's last meal with his disciples, but the central focus is his commandment that we live out the promise embodied in this meal. As Jesus washed his disciples' feet, so we are called to give and receive love in humble service to one another. Formed into a new body in Christ through this holy meal, we are transformed by the mercy we have received and carry it into the world. Departing worship in solemn silence, we anticipate the coming days.

Sundays and Seasons

“Love one another as I have loved you.”

Life and death stand side by side as we enter into Good Friday. In John's passion account, Jesus reveals the power and glory of God, even as he is put on trial and sentenced to death. Standing with the disciples at the foot of the cross, we pray for the whole world in the ancient bidding prayer, as Christ's death offers life to all. We gather in solemn devotion, but always with the promise that the tree around which we assemble is indeed a tree of life. We depart silently, and we anticipate the culmination of the Three Days in the Easter Vigil.

This is the day the Lord has made! Christ is risen, and through him all creation is made new! Indeed, “God shows no partiality” (Acts 10:34): Christ’s resurrection truly brings life to everyone. We sing hymns of praise, gather around sacred words, and proclaim God’s faithfulness, power, and love in the feast of holy communion. With the women at the tomb, we are astonished, elated, and grateful. We depart with joy to proclaim the good news of God’s endless love.

Preparing for Worship

Before you turn on your livestream of worship, consider preparing a space—a coffee table or end table, for example—in the area where you’ll be streaming worship.

The most basic thing you might do is simply put a cross in the center of your worship space. To be more elaborate, add some candles and plants. Candles remind us of the light of Christ, and plants remind us of God’s good creation.

You might also consider having a bowl of water to remind you of baptism.

Finally, if it’s a communion service, prepare a space for the bread (if bread is unavailable, the closest thing to bread you have—a grain of some type) and wine (if wine is unavailable, the closest thing to wine you have—a festive drink)

Worship Volunteers Needed

We are looking for people who would be willing to record themselves leading a portion of the worship service. We’re especially looking for people who normally can’t participate—those who had been at college, those afraid to speak in public, or those normally busy on Sunday mornings. All ages and abilities needed.

If you’re interested, contact Janet McCarthy at worshipvol@mtzionlutheran.org

Everyone Saying the “A” Word

We want videos of every household saying the “A” word for Easter.

Record one person in your family saying “Alleluia! Christ is risen!”

Then have everyone else join in, exclaiming, “Christ is risen indeed! Alleluia!”

Feel free to be VERY CREATIVE with your alleluia videos.

Contact Janet McCarthy at worshipvol@mtzionlutheran.org for an upload link.
